North Korean Help to Pakistan

955. SHRI PARMESHWAR KUMAR AGARWALLA: Will the Minister of EXTERNAL AFFAIRS be pleased to state:

(a) whether it is a fact that Pakistan has been clandestinely helped North Korea in its nuclear programme;

(b) whether India brought this matter to the notice of the USA; and

(c) what steps have been taken to declare Pakistan as terrorist State?

THE MINISTER OF STATE IN THE MINISTRY OF EXTERNAL AFFAIRS (SHRI DIGVIJAY SINGH): (a) Government have seen recent reports about Pakistan having helped North Korea in latter's nuclear weapons programme in exchange for transfer of ballistic missile technology.

(b) US Secretary of State Colin Powell stated in an interview that he had conveyed the US concerns about North Korea's nuclear programme to General Pervez Musharraf. He stated that "President Musharraf gave me his assurance, as he has previously, that Pakistan is not doing anything of that nature." As regards past cooperation, Mr. Powell stated "I don't want to get into the past and sources and methods because there obviously were nations who were helping North Korea as they acquired the technology."

(c) It is well known that Pakistan has become the epicentre of international terrorism. Information regarding terrorist infrastructure, in Pakistan and Pakistan controlled territories, for support to terrorism is appropriately shared with other countries as a part of the global effort against international terrorism. Pakistan's continued involvement with and support for cross-border terrorism is widely recognised and many countries have called upon Pakistan to fulfill its commitment to end cross-border infiltration and terrorism.

Augmentation of Guwahati Passport Office
